Spartans Second In Cross Country

West High upset highly favored Chino High School Thursday afternoon to win the CIF Class A cross country championship at Long Beach State College.

South High, a Triple-A entry, finished second in its division, losing to favored Westminster High School, 51-55. The Spartans, however, placed two men in the top five individual winners.

Lenny Jay and Jeff Marsee, the green-and-white's one-two punch, placed fourth and fifth in the individual standings to bring home a pair of medals. West coach Bob Hotel, who called the Warrior victory "fantastic for this calibre of meet," attributed the win to a team "which worked for four years to win this championship."

The CIF title is the first ever won by an athletic team at West High and is the first CIF cross country title ever won by a Torrance high school.

Mike Sellers, a quiet junior who has been hampered by a series of illnesses and injuries for most of this season, came back in top form to win sixth place in the individual race and second in the team meet. Seller's time for the 1.8-mile course was 9:09. He was followed across the finish line by Phil Rafferty, a senior transfer from Mt. Carmel High School. Rafferty toured the course in 9:16.

Other West finishers were Tom Purkey, a sophomore who was sixth in the team meet in 9:22; Bob Clark, a senior, who was 17th in 9:55, and Tom Johnston, another senior, 19th in 9:59.

West sixth and seventh men (not scored in the meet) were Bill Franz and Dale Nelms. Both seniors, they cleared the course in 10:22 and 10:57.

The Spartans narrowly missed an upset victory when their fifth man, Steve Kaplan, was accorded 29th position in the team race. Jay and Marsee finished in the second and third positions in the team race, while George Watson and George Halliwell were 9th and 12th.

Jay ran the course in 8:58 and Marsee was barely a second behind him. Watson was timed in 9:15, while Halliwell stopped the clock at 9:17. Kaplan's time was 9:39.

South's sixth and seventh men were Doug Malone and Louis Salatine, who ran 9:43 and 9:54 races.

Dick Scully, who coaches the Spartan distance men, predicted the South team would be "knocking on that door" again next year.

South and the rest of the Triple-A teams ran the Long Beach course in a dense, low fog which rolled in from the coastal area about 4 p.m.

The Triple-A individual championship was won by Dave Bogard of Simi Valley High, while Rich Grove of California High won the Class A individual medal.

San Marino upset John Glenn High School in the small schools division, while Hueneme High won the Double-A division. Morningside High was fourth in the "AA" race and Redondo finished seventh in the "A" team scoring.

DAVE LAROCHE

LaRoche Better Record

For 10 years the record for the most points by an individual player in the Pacific Shores Basketball Tournament was 34 by Santa Monica's Tom Bennett.

West High's Dave LaRoche turned the numbers around Thursday night for a record 43 points in a consolation game against Santa Monica.

West bowed out of the tournament in three games after losing to Mira Costa, 62-51; defeating Santa Monica, 89-51; and losing again to North, 75-65.

Lineman Award to Gillespie

Among the four Camino Real League football powerhouses, all-league player selections feature Brian Porter of Crespi as the "player of the year" for the second time.

Bishop Montgomery center and linebacker Dan Gillespie is the "lineman of the year," and junior quarterback Danny Graham was named to both the offensive and defensive teams. Back Jim Franklin of Crespi was the only other player to go both ways.

Crespi, which won its 13th straight game by beating Antelope Valley, 44-7, Friday, also had back John Smith and center Jerry Falstrom on the first offensive team and end Rod Thomas and tackle Jack Lambert on the defensive platoon.

Montgomery's end Tom Hanson and guard Mike Wood were named to offensive team positions and middle guard Pete Trocchiano and end Mike Leamy made the defensive unit.

A total of 20 players was given recognition.

Fermin Lasuen placed its quarterback Phil Smyth on the defensive team along with linebacker Phil Gannam. Guard Charley Azar and tackle Pete Crosby made the offensive team.

Players were nominated by each league coach, but coaches were not permitted to vote for their own players in balloting for the all-league team.

Banquet Scheduled For West

Ray Southstone, track and field coach at El Camino College and Robert Shoup, head football coach at California Lutheran College, will speak at the athletic banquet at West High School, Torrance, at 7 p.m. Wednesday.

At both the cross-country banquet and the football banquet letters and awards will be presented.

Southstone will speak on "What it takes in distance running" at the cross-country banquet while Shoup will discuss "The qualities of a good football player."

Tickets are available for $1.50.

South Ace Out With Leg Injury

A sprained ankle which has sidelined Steve Kuchenbecker declared South out of the running for the Pacific Shores Basketball Tournament Wednesday.

Kuchenbecker, injured in the second period of the Culver City game in which his team won, 64-52, was on crutches for the El Segundo and Loyola games in which the Spartans lost by 62-44 and 67-56 scores.

Coach Jim Hanny has a reason to be puzzled over his luck lately. He is without the services of Chuck Fernandes, who is recovering from a broken shoulder, Mark Sleeth is playing with a broken nose, and now Kuchenbecker.
